The summer issue of Vermont Life contains a photographic record of a traditional Strawberry Festival in Dorset. Among Dorset residents seen enjoying the fruits of the season are Mr. and Mrs. William G. Barrows and daughter Bellada. Mrs. Barrows is the former Harriet Simmons, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Simmons.

The Rev. Robert J. Baffa, who has been connected with St. John's parish here for a little more than a year, received word this week that he has been re-assigned to Cathedral Parish, Burlington.

Father Baffa, who came here first as deacon, was ordained at St. John's Church in May, and since that time has been serving as assistant to the pastor, the Rev. Walter F. Miller. Father Baffa's new assignment will commence Saturday, and it is expected that a new assistant will come to the local church at that time.

Richard A. Corcoran, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard A. Corcoran of Mechanic Street, has been accepted for admission to Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute, beginning this fall. Corcoran is a member of the Class of 1966, Bennington Catholic High School.

St. John's Sodality will meet Wednesday at 8 p.m. in the Library.
