

Breidenbach at St. John's

The Rev. John Breidenbach has been appointed assistant pastor of St. John the Baptist Catholic Church here.

Breidenbach, 28, a Bedford native, was ordained on Aug. 21 at St. John the Evangelist Catholic Church in Loogootee.

A 1983 graduate of St. Meinrad College, he received his master of divinity degree with honors from the University of St. Mary of the Lake, Mundelein, Ill.

During his theological training, he completed a 10-week clinical experience at Deaconess Hospital in Evansville.

Breidenbach is a member of the Bedford council of the Knights of Columbus and is a candidate for membership in the organization's honorary Fourth Degree.

The son of Paul and Betty Breidenbach of Bedford, he has worked in parishes in Sullivan, Jasper and Loogootee and at the Outpost, the diocesan youth camp at Santa Claus.

Breidenbach said his duties here will include teaching religion classes at Rivet High School, as well as parish adult education and liturgy.
