

JOHN E. FOWLER, CPS

Orono Religious Takes Vows In Stigmatine Order

ORONO, Dec. 18 — The Very Rev. Gilbert Fini, C.P.S., Provincial of the Stigmatine Fathers presided at ceremonies in the novitiate chapel of the order at 302 Maple Street, in Springfield, Mass. when Brother John E. Fowler, C.P.S., of Orono, pronounced his perpetual vows.

Brother Fowler is a graduate of Orono Catholic High school and during World War II served for 33 months with the U.S. Army in the Pacific.

He entered the Stigmatine congregation in September, 1948, at Waltham, Mass., after a year of training at the Juniorate there, he came to the Stigmatine Fathers house in Springfield, where he has been assigned since 1951.

Brother Fowler is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Fowler of Orono.