

Ex-Lynner conducts mass at St. Mary's

Rev. Eugene J. Trainor.

LYNN — The Rev. Eugene J. Trainor, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene E. Trainor, 175 Franklin St., celebrated a mass of thanksgiving at St. Mary's Church after his ordination as a priest for the diocese of Victoria, British Columbia. Bishop Remi DeRoo officiated at the ceremonies at St. Andrew's Cathedral in Victoria.

A native of Lynn, Father Trainor, 43, is a former high school teacher and volunteer worker in the Vancouver area.

He graduated from St. Mary's High in 1954.

He entered the Xaverian Brothers order in 1955 and studied at Xaverian College and Catholic University, graduating in 1961 with a bachelor of arts degree in Latin.

He later taught at high schools in Bangor, Maine, and Westwood and also studied at Notre Dame University. He entered St. Paul's Seminary in Ottawa in 1974 and also studied at St. Joseph's Seminary, Edmonton, Canada.

Father Trainor has two brothers, John of Lynn and Dennis Trainor of Salem and a sister, Ellen of Revere.