

Parish Prospering Under Father Biglin

Rev. Charles P. Biglin

Special Despatch to Sunday Telegram

Old Town, March 2 — The Rev. Charles Beter Biglin, pastor of St. Mary's Roman Catholic Church announces awards in connection with the recent parish reunion and bazaar as follows: Mrs. Nelson Griffith, $15; E. Haskell, Milford, $5; Mrs. Charles Ward, $5; Mrs. Flora Collier, 100 pounds of sugar; Mrs. Francis Farnsworth, quilt; Raymond J. Spruce, blanket; R. Paradis, Luncheon set; Mrs. Stanley Needham, tea set; Mrs. S. Potts, hope chest; the Rev. J. J. Sullivan of South Brewer, chicken dinner; Mrs. M. Groggs, candy; Miss B. McCarthy, set of bowls; Mrs. Alice Fitzgerald, chair; David Kitchen, hand painted picture; Avis Chamberlain, lamp.

Father Biglin, who has been with the parish for about four years has accomplished much during that time. There were 135 families in the parish upon his arrival and there are now 200. The catechism class has had an enrollment of 250 children.

Before coming to Maine some 15 years ago Father Biglin spent more than ten years as a missionary in British Columbia and in South East Alaska. He is a native of New London, Conn. One of the facilities, which has greatly improved the work of the parish, is the remodeling of a tenement house adjacent to the church for a parish community house.

Father Biglin announces that at the conclusion of Lent, there is to be a series of socials for the benefit of the parish.
