

Rev. Rosario Ouellette

Holy Family Pastor Is Priest 25 Years

The Rev. Rosario E. Ouellette, pastor of the Holy Family Church and pre-synodal examiner for the Portland Diocese, will observe his 25th anniversary in the priesthood May 26.

He was ordained May 26, 1929, by Archbishop John Greg-

(Continued on Page Two)

Holy Family Pastor

(Continued from Page One)

ory Murray, then Bishop of the Portland Diocese, at the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception, Portland.

Pastor of the Holy Family Church here since 1947, Father Ouellette is a native of Lewiston and holds AB and STB degrees from Sulpician House of Studies, Washington, D. C.

He taught at Cheverus High School, Portland, from 1929 until 1939 and became diocesan director of the Society for the Propagation of the Faith from 1939 until 1947. Father Ouellette has been diocesan pre-synodal examiner since December, 1950.