

New Names For Members Of St. Doms Faculty

By Danny Caron

In Rome, five months ago, the newly elected General Chapter of the Brothers of the Sacred Heart, along with delegates from different provinces of the Order, voted on a bill, as to whether or not the Brothers should be allowed to keep their family names. It was voted on and passed by a majority, that the Brothers would from now on be able, if they wanted to, either keep their family names or change them.

This decision from Rome was received by The Provincial of each Province. It is that The Brothers in his Province are allowed to change their names back to their own names.

Here in New England The Provincial Bro. Leo Albert S.C. now Bro. Fernand Berard, S.C. contacted the different schools in order for the Brothers to act upon this bill passed by The General Chapter of Rome.

Here in Lewiston, Saint Dominic High School's Brothers have changed their names, all except one that is. To start listing them right, the list will read from the principal to the homeroom teachers of each classes starting from the Senior classes down.

Aubin now Bro. Gerard Laflamme; Bro. Rene now Bro. Rene Vincelette; Bro. Alfred now Bro. Joseph Phaneuf; Bro. Clarence now Bro. Gerard Proulx; Bro. Camillus now Bro. Paul Gauvin.
