

Rev. Hill returning for Lisbon meetings

LISBON — Rev. Ernest Hill, of Trinity Missions in Alabama, now in the Portland Diocese, will preach a triduum on March 18, 19, 20 at St. Anne's Church in Lisbon at 7:00 p.m.

Educated at St. Patrick's in Stoneham, Mass., then Malden Catholic High, he went on for his novitiate at Holy Trinity, Alabama, before completing his studies for the priesthood at Silver Spring, Maryland, in 1951.

He was assigned to Mission parishes throughout the South and West of the United States, until invited to this diocese in 1979 to assist in Renewal of the Church. His teachings, although traditional, come alive and attract the young and old alike, according to Pastor Lionel McKeone.

He will be available for

REV. ERNEST HILL

confessions, visitation of the sick at home, nursing homes and hospitals during his stay in Lisbon.

There will be an important parish council meeting, Thursday at 7 p.m. in the parish hall.