

3 City Men Will Enter Priesthood

Three Minneapolis men will be among eight graduates of St. Paul seminary who will be ordained to the priesthood for service in the St. Paul archdiocese at 9 a.m. Saturday in the St. Paul cathedral.

Auxiliary Bishop James J. Byrne, St. Paul, will officiate.

The Minneapolis men to be ordained are the Rev. John E. Mitchell, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. I. Mitchell, 4239 Girard avenue N.; the Rev. Alan W. Moss, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Moss, 4549 Vincent avenue S., and the Rev. James B. Namie, son of Mrs. Martha Namie, 416 NE. Madison street.

Father Namie

Father Moss

Father Mitchell attended St. Bridget's school, Edison high school and St. John's university and served in the navy. He will celebrate his first mass at 11 a.m. Sunday at St. Bridget's church.

Father Moss attended St. Thomas grade school, Southwest high school and St. John's university. He will say his first masses at 6 and 11 a.m. Sunday at St. Thomas church. A reception will be held in the St. Thomas school hall from 2:30 to 5:30 p.m. Sunday.

Father Namie attended Our Lady of Lourdes grade school, Edison high school and Nazareth hall. He will celebrate his first mass at 10:30 a.m. Sunday at St. Maron's church.

Also to be ordained Saturday will be the Rev. Gilbert J. DeSutter, Ghent, Minn.; the Rev. Leo J. Dynes, Kilkenny, Minn.; the Rev. Nicholas A. Cody, 1115 N. Oxford street, St. Paul; the Rev. Alfred J. Skluzacek, Lonsdale, and the Rev. Raymond J. Zweber, Hastings.

Sixty-two other men who were in the 70-member graduating class of St. Paul seminary—its largest in history—are being ordained in other dioceses.