

The Catholic Missourian

Edition of Our Sunday Visitor

VOL. XLIX

JEFFERSON CITY, MISSOURI
Sunday, March 12, 1961

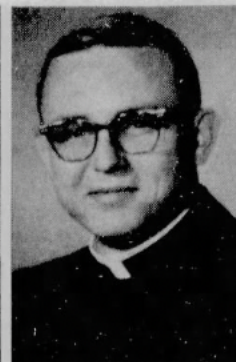

No. 46

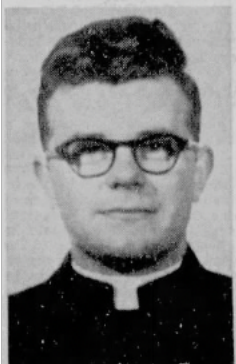

Rev. Mr. Long

Rev. Mr. Kennedy

Rev. Mr. Schultz

Rev. Mr. Fay

Rev. Mr. Stockman

Rev. Mr. Allred

Six to Be Ordained for Diocese

The Diocese of Jefferson City will add six priests to the ranks of its Diocesan clergy through Ordinations to the Sacred Priesthood within the near future. There will be two Ordinations in March, two in May, and two in June.

The Most Rev. Joseph M. Marling will ordain the Rev. Lawrence Stockman to the Priesthood in the chapel of St. Thomas Seminary, Hannibal, on Saturday, March 18. On the same day, the Rev. Lyle Kennedy will be ordained to the Priesthood in the Basilica of St. John Lateran in Rome, Italy. The Rev. J. Leon Allred and Rev. John B. Schultz will be ordained by the Most Rev. Joseph M. Marling at St. Peter Cathedral, Jefferson City, on May 20. The ordinations of the Rev. Liam Fay and Rev. John Long will take place in Ireland during the month of June.

THE REV. Lawrence Stockman, son of Mrs. Marcella and the late Victor J. Stockman, was born in Glasgow, Mo. on Dec. 9, 1935. He attended St. Mary's School in Glasgow, the St. Louis Preparatory Seminary, and Kenrick Seminary.

The Rev. Lyle Kennedy, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. George Kennedy, was born in Galesburg, Illinois, on April 28, 1906. He received his education at St. Joseph Academy, Corpus Christi High School, and Knox-Lombard College — all located in Galesburg, Ill., the National University of Law in Washington, D. C., and Beda College in Rome, Italy.

The Rev. J. Leon Allred, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Allred, was born in Macon, Mo. on April 23, 1934. He attended Immaculate Conception School in Macon and the minor and major seminaries in Conception, Mo.

The Rev. John B. Schultz, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Schultz, was born in Trenton, N. J. on Nov. 3, 1932. He received his education in New Jersey schools and Conception Seminary, Conception, Mo.

THE REV. Liam Fay, son of Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Fay was born in Castletown, Mullingar County Westmeath, Ireland, on April 10, 1936. He received his grade school education in his home town; he attended St. Mary's Seminary, Moyne, County Longford, St. Patrick's College in Cavan, Holy Cross College in Dublin, and All Hallows College in Dublin.

The Rev. John Long, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Long, was born in Cork Ireland, on Sept. 17, 1934. He attended grade school at St. Joseph Monastery in Cork; his high school and college education were received at Ashburton Academy and the Dominican Fathers School in Cork and at the Dominican Studium Generale in Dublin. His theological studies were made at St. Kieran's Seminary in Kilkenny.