

The Catholic Missourian

Edition of Our Sunday Visitor

JEFFERSON CITY, MISSOURI
Vol. LI Sunday, March 24, 1963 No. 47

Blessed Mother Seton

'New Holiness' Cited by Pope

Vatican City—His Holiness Pope John XXIII said that Mother Seton's beatification adds a new quality to the "varied concept of the Church's holiness."

After referring to her fervor as an Episcopalian, Pope John said that Mother Seton arrived at the Catholic faith "not by a denial of the past but rather as reaching a providential goal . . . for which she had been prepared by the whole course of her former life."

He said that Mrs. Seton's entering the Catholic Church was an "enriching of the treasure she already possessed."

THE POPE also praised the United States and called Mother Seton a "precursor" of the U.S. parochial school system in his address in St. Peter's Basilica at an afternoon ceremony for the beatification, the last in a series of steps which lead to being named a Saint.

Elizabeth Ann Bayley Seton, the first native U.S. citizen called blessed by the Catholic Church, was born in New York city in 1774. Brought up an Episcopalian, she was the mother of five children and a widow when in 1803 she became a Catholic. In 1807 she founded the Sisters of Charity of St. Joseph.

Pope John noted in his address that the United States has continually adopted laws which are "derived from principles of Christian morality" and "ever more in

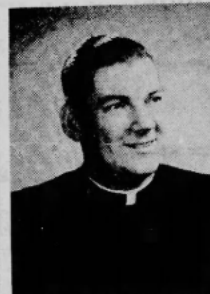

See Mother Seton, page 2A

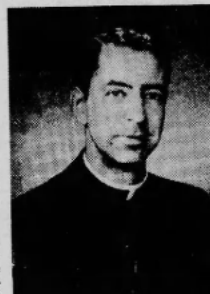

Rev. Donald Greene

Rev. Stephen Sandknop

Rev. Leonard Misy

Rev. Robert Chenoweth

Rev. Anthony O'Connell

Rev. Joseph Starmann

Bishop Marling to Confer Holy Orders

Six to Be Ordained for Diocese In Cathedral Ceremony, March 30

The ranks of the diocesan priesthood will be increased on Saturday, March 30, when six young men will be ordained to the priesthood for the Diocese of Jefferson City.

All six candidates will be ordained by the Most Rev. Joseph M. Marling in ceremonies at 10:30 a.m. at St. Peter Cathedral in Jefferson City.

The Rev. Donald Greene was born in Co. Donegal, Ireland on Dec. 27, 1937. After attending Loughanure National School in Donegal, he studied for the priesthood at St. Eunan's College, Co. Donegal, and at St. John's College, Waterford, Ireland. In 1959, he came to this country for completion of his studies at St. John's Seminary, Little Rock, Ark. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter F. Greene of Co. Donegal. A brother, Rev. Eugene Greene, S.S.P., is serving in Nigeria, Africa. He has five other brothers and five sisters.

The Rev. Stephen Sandknop was born in New York City on Dec. 7, 1937. At an early age, his family moved to Cincinnati, O., where he attended St. Catharine's grade school. In 1951, the family moved to Edina, Mo., where Stephen attended the public high school. He studied for the priesthood at Cardinal Glennon College and Kenrick Seminary, both in St. Louis. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Sandknop of St. Joseph Parish, Edina. He has a brother and two sisters.

The Rev. Leonard Misy was born in Milwaukee, Wis., on April 22, 1928. He attended St. Casimir Grade School, Mexicaner High School, and Marquette University, all in Milwaukee. He studied for the priesthood at St. Charles Seminary, Carthage, O., and at Kenrick Seminary, St. Louis. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Misy. He has four brothers, one of whom is Rev. Roderic Misy, C.P., of Houston, Tex. His two sisters are Sisters Mary Pauline and Mary Anne, both of the Natre Dame Sisters in Milwaukee.

The Rev. Robert Chenoweth was born in St. Louis on Aug. 4, 1931. He received his grade and high school education at the School of the Osage, Lake Ozark, Mo. After attending Central Missouri State College in Warrensburg and the University of Missouri in Columbia, he began studies for the priesthood in 1957 at St. Benedict's College, Atchison, Kan., and completed studies at Kenrick Seminary, St. Louis. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Blanchard Chenoweth of Sacred Heart Parish, Eldon. He has one sister.

The Rev. Anthony O'Connell was born at Lisheen, Ballynablly, Co. Clare, Ireland on May 10, 1938. He attended the local grade school and the Christian Brothers High Schools at Cork and Ennis, Ireland. His priesthood studies began at Munret College, Limerick, Ireland, and were completed at Kenrick Seminary in St. Louis. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John O'Connell. His brother, Rev. Bro. Alphonsus, is a Holy Ghost Brother serving in Nigeria, West Africa. He has two sisters and three foster brothers.

The Rev. Joseph Starmann was born in St. Louis on June 27, 1931. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Starmann. He has two sisters and three foster brothers.

See Ordinands, page 2A