

Father McMyler To Perry

The Rev. Patrick McMyler, Irish-born and Irish-ordained assistant pastor of St. Brendan's Catholic Church in Mexico, this week becomes the pastor of St. William's Church at Perry and the mission church of St. Frances Cabrini at Paris.

He was appointed by the Most Rev. John McAuliffe, bishop of Jefferson City, to replace the Rev. John Butler, who requested assignment in Hawaii for his health. He will do mission work with the Sacred Heart Fathers.

Father McMyler was ordained to the priesthood six years ago at St. John's Seminary in Ireland. After coming to Missouri, he served as an assistant pastor of Sacred Heart parish in Columbia before being appointed to St. Brendan's last October.

"I haven't been here long," he said, "but I have enjoyed being in Mexico."

The Rev. Edward J. Donohew, pastor, expects a new assistant to arrive Friday. Father McMyler will move to Perry Friday.
