

Three to Be Ordained to Priesthood April 7

The ranks of the diocesan priesthood will be increased on Saturday, April 7, when three young men will be ordained to the priesthood for the Diocese of Jefferson City.

The Rev. George J. Kramer and the Rev. Donald L. Wallace will be ordained by the Most Rev. Joseph M. Marling in ceremonies at 10:30 A.M. at St. Peter Cathedral in Jefferson City. On the same morning, the Rev. Gennaro J. Ingenito will be ordained in Rome. Four more seminarians will be ordained to the priesthood for the Diocese this spring, thus bringing to 26 the number of priests ordained for the Diocese of Jefferson City since its establishment in 1956.

The Rev. George Joseph Kramer was born in Bonnets Mill, Mo. on February 5, 1936. He attended St. Louis School in Bonnets Mill, the Loose Creek High School in Loose Creek, Mo. and Fatima High School in Westphalia, Mo. prior to entering the St. Louis Preparatory Seminary in St. Louis, Mo. in 1954. He completed his studies at Kenrick Seminary, St. Louis. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fridolin A. Kramer of St. Louis parish, Bonnets Mill, Mo.

The Rev. Donald Leo Wallace was born in Shelbyville, Mo. on August 1, 1935. After attending grade and high school in Shelbyville, he entered Rockhurst College in Kansas City, Mo. He completed his studies for the priesthood at St. John Seminary in Little Rock, Arkansas. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Wallace of St. Mary's Parish, Shelbyville, Mo.

The Rev. Gennaro John Ingenito was born in Brooklyn, New York, on May 30, 1926. After grade and high school studies in Brooklyn, he attended Sampson College, Manhattan College, and Fordham University — all in New York. He completed his studies for the priesthood at Beda College, Rome, Italy. He received a Bachelor of Business Administration degree from Manhattan College in 1952, and a Bachelor of Laws degree from the Fordham University School of Law in 1956. He is the son of Mrs. Elvira and the late John Ingenito; his mother resides in St. Francis de Paola Parish in Brooklyn, New York.
