Man Accused Of Sex Assault On Boy, 7

OCEAN CITY — A 56-year-old man was in the Ocean City Jail today awaiting a bail review after he was charged with 34 counts of various sex offenses and child abuse, Ocean City Police said.

Leo Edmund O'Hara, who police said has no fixed address, was brought from Prince George's County, where he was in custody, to Ocean City late Wednesday. He formerly lived in Ocean City, police said.

O'Hara was arrested after Ocean City Police received information that a 7-year-old boy had been abused, police said. The incidents occurred between September 1986 and January this year, police said.
