BELOVED FRIEND:

"Al" was a Roman Catholic priest who I worked for in Volunteer Administration, NYS Dept. of Mental Health, while he was on a sabbatical from the priesthood. He was the friendliest, sweetest and one of the most intelligent men I have ever met. He wrote a book entitled, Corology. One of his ethics was, "You work to live, not live to work." "Al" died of a sudden heart attack at 69 years of age. Al was also in the US Navy and served in parishes in Amsterdam and Albany, NY.
