Robert Charles Callahan

April 9, 1931 — November 22, 2019

Bob was a very caring person. He dedicated his life to helping people.

He was a diocesan priest for 25 years. He was successful in helping the youth of the parish by encouraging them to participate in sports or join the choir that he formed.

After deciding to come out of the priesthood, he worked for the prison system to rehabilitate inmates.

A few years later, he married and helped raise three young children. He was happily married for 38 years.

He was then employed at CCBC. He enjoyed his job working at Continuing Education for the elderly.

His hobbies were reading and golfing. One of the highlights of his life was getting a “hole in one” at the Rolling Road Golf Club.

Bob lived a long and rewarding life.

Many fond, meaningful memories. Playing on the soccer team. Singing in the chorus. Playing softball. Going out on his boat. Eating crabs. He would go with our family to Ocean City. I learned a lot about life and ministry from him - not book taught but by watching him. More is caught than is taught. He was infectious in a very positive and wonderful way.

As a kid, I spent a lot of time with Robert. He was also the Chaplain at what was Fort Holabird. I found this out when I was picked up by the MPs for riding my bike down the tank testing track. Somehow the MPs thought this was a bad idea. I was taken to the CO's office who happened to be my Uncle. To keep me out of trouble, my Uncle supplied me base passes to the base gym and called in the Chaplain who just happened to be Robert Callahan. He knew my family from Saint Rita's Church. There were many activities from baseball games at the old Memorial Stadium, to football, soccer, and poker. Basically, he kept us kids out of trouble and acted as a role model. I cannot say enough good things about this wonderful man.

We remember the good times we had in Shannondale, especially the food off the grill.Â In the early days we would meet the family hiking on the AT.Â We miss those times.Â Bob always had a joke and lover to make you laugh.
