Rev. Michael Raimondo died on May 10 at the Holy Cross hospital, Salt Lake City, Utah, of heart disease, after an illness of a month. Until he was stricken he had been attached to the Cathedral of the Madeleine for a year and a half and was known for his charitable work among his countrymen. Father Raimondo was born in Italy forty-three years ago, and came to this country fifteen years ago.

Our Sunday Visitor, May 27, 1921