

FOUR TO ENTER PRIESTHOOD HERE

Ordination Services To Be Held Tomorrow At St. Anne's Church

Four members of the Congregation of the Catholic Oratory will be ordained to the priesthood at 10 a. m. tomorrow on the feast of the Epiphany in Saint Anne's Catholic church.

The Most Reverend Emmet M. Walsh, D. D., Bishop of the Catholic diocese of Charleston, will be in charge of the ordination service for the Rev. Edward Wahl, a native of Jersey City, N. J.; the Rev. John Nedley, Yonkers, N. Y.; the Rev. Joseph Richmond, Bayside, N. Y.; and the Rev. Francis Winum, Ozone Park, N. Y. After receiving their college degrees, the four pursued their theological studies in St. Meinrad's Seminary in Indiana.

The Most Reverend Bishop will be assisted by the Right Reverend Martin Murphy of Columbia and the Reverend John McCarthy of Charleston. Master of ceremonies will be the Very Reverend Father Vincent, pastor of Saint Ann's church here.
