

Rev. Howard Slack Will Offer First Mass on July 26

Rev. Howard B. Slack of Medina was ordained to the priesthood last Saturday by Most Rev. James A. McNulty, D.D., Bishop of Paterson, N. J., in Louvain, Belgium.

Father Slack, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. James V. Slack of Medina, will return to this country to celebrate his first solemn Mass at his home parish, St. Mary's Church, Medina, on Sunday, July 26, at 11 a.m.

Rt. Rev. Msgr. James T. Sullivan, pastor, will be assistant priest. The sermon will be given by Rt. Rev. Msgr. Henry B. Shaw, pastor of All Saints Church, Buffalo.

Worked in Lackport

Other officers of the Mass will be Rev. James N. Moynihan, deacon; Rev. Stanley Ropelski of South Dayton, subdeacon, and David Inman of Providence, R. I., master of ceremonies.

Prior to entering the seminary, Father Slack was employed in the cost accounting section of Harrison Radiator Division of General Motors, Lackport.

He received his seminary training at the School of St. Philip Neri for Delayed Vocations in Boston; Christ the King Seminary of St. Bonaventure University, and the American College, University of Louvain, Belgium.
