

REV. LOREN
GLENN NYS SDS

Local Man's Ordination

The Rev. Loren Glenn Nys SDS, son of Mr. and Mrs. Winston L. Nys, 1828 Newberry Ave., will be ordained a priest for the Society of the Divine Savior-Salvatorian on Saturday, June 3 at the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception in Washington D. C.

He professed his first vows as a Salvatorian at Salvatorian Novitiate, Colfax, Iowa, in September of 1959 and then took up residence at Divine Savior Seminary, Lanham, Md., taking the last of his college studies at Catholic University in America, Washington, D. C. earning a BA degree in philosophy in 1961. As part of the Society's apostolic program, he was assigned to St. Mary's High School at Lancaster, N. Y.

At the completion of his teaching assignment he returned to Lanham and began the four year study of theology at Catholic University. Besides those studies he also has done graduate work in guidance counselling and has worked as a principal, junior high school CCD program and camp counselor.

Father Nys will celebrate his first Solemn High Mass at 12:15 p.m. Sunday, June 11 at St. Bernard Church in Green Bay. The Rev. Edward Haessly will be the archpriest; the Rev. Leon Ross, SDS, deacon; the Rev. Charles Juckem SDS, subdeacon and the Rev. Victor McEvoy SDS will preach.

He will then return to Divine Savior Seminary at Lanham to complete his course work for a master's degree. His first full priestly assignment will be at St. Mary's High School, Lancaster, N. Y. as assistant guidance counselor.

Father Nys has two sisters, Mrs. Joseph Bangert and Miss Sandra and two brothers, Dennis and Dane, all of Green Bay.
