

Ordain Verona Youth May 29

First Mass Planned By Rev. Probstfield

The Rev. Edgar Probstfield, O.S.B., son of Mrs. Christine Probstfield of Verona, will be ordained to the priesthood by the Most Rev. Charles Hubert Lebond, D. D., in the basilica of Immaculate Conception church, Conception, Mo., on Thursday, May 29.

The ordination service will be at 9 a. m.

Formal invitations have been issued to friends of Reverend Probstfield to worship with him when he offers his first solemn mass in Sacred Heart church in Verona on June 2 at 9:30 a. m.

THE YOUNG MAN who has pledged his life's work to his church is better known as Victor Probstfield, having taken his ecclesiastical name, Edgar, as a tribute to his brother, Capt. Edgar Probstfield, who lost his life in World War II.

Another brother, Vernon Probstfield, is a candidate for the priesthood at the Conception seminary.
