

Family Counseling Service Names Orleans County Campaign Chairmen

NEWPORT — The chairman of the Family Counseling Service, the Rev. Forrest Rouelle, announced Sunday through the executive secretary, Miss Marilyn Meader, that the town chairmen for Orleans County have been appointed.

They are Mrs. Madeline Squires, Barton; Mrs. Leon Mosher, Beebe Plain; Mrs. Irene Lanoue, Orleans; Mrs. George Beauregard, West Charleston; Mrs. Jackie Smith, Coventry; Mrs. Ernest Pike, Craftsbury.

Also, Mrs. Fred Taylor, Derby; Mrs. Raymond Petelle, Derby Line; Mrs. Clovis Leroux, Glover; Mrs. Robert Wheeler, Holland; Mrs. Henry Pudvah, Lowell; Mrs. Betty Valley, Westmore; Mrs. Leo Davignon, Brownington.

Mrs. Dale Bartlett, Newport Center; Mrs. Larry Mason, Albany; Mrs. Paul Howe, Newport; Mrs. Marvin Lahue, Troy; Mrs. Fred Alexander, Irasburg.

The chairmen have been asked to select a solicitor for every five homes. The goal is $5,000.

The executive board of the Family Counseling Service named Father Rouelle to direct the fund raising drive for 1960.

He is assistant pastor of St. Paul's in Barton. He is the former director of the Don Bosco Home for Boys in Burlington, and chairman of the executive board of the Family Counseling Service of Orleans County. Father Rouelle directed the 1959 Mental Health Drive for Orleans County and reported that Orleans County ranked third in the state for the drive.

The fund drive this year is to establish a Family Counsel Service in Orleans County. He said the board has hopes of establishing the service in Newport City.
