

STANDARDIZING DRESSINGS — Members of Western Massachusetts Group Purchasing met recently at Ludlow Hospital to discuss standardizing surgical dressings used by the 20 member hospitals. Testing a surgical dressing above are, right, Miss Virginia Slepecki, director of surgical nursing, and standing, Rene Messier, buyer, both from Springfield Hospital Medical Center. Alfred Szlapinski, center, chairman of the group purchasing organization and director of purchasing for Mercy Hospital, looks on.

The Republican (Springfield MA), June 29, 1970