

Fr. Marquart to be pastor of Pulaskifield

Rev. Ernest Marquart

The Rev. Ernest Marquart, a former teacher at St. Henry's School in Charleston, has received a new assignment from Most Rev. Bernard Law, bishop of Springfield-Cape Girardeau.

Father Marquart, who has been pastor of St. William's Parish, Buffalo, will become pastor of Saints Peter and Paul Parish, Pulaskifield, with the mission of St. Edward's Cassville, effective Sept. 15.

Since his ordination in Rome in 1970, Father Marquart has served as diocesan director of vocations, pastor at Buffalo, director of the religion department at Springfield Catholic High School and teacher of religion there.
