Msgr. Simonin was always available and ready to help. I will never forget how the morning after HUGO hit he said Mass at the usual time with battery run lamps on the altar. May he rest in peace. with prayers, Sr. Susan John Daughters of St. Paul

I first met Fr. Simonin at Camp St. Mary's where we developed a wonderful friendship. He visited me in Sumter several times and concelebrated my wedding mass in 1971. We visited him at St. Mary's Church while he was pastor. I will forever remember his kind, gentle demeanor and loving spirit. God bless him and his family, Marianne Stutz

To the Simonin Family, Fr. Simonin has been a life-long friend of our mother -- Carolyn Mallard Veneto and married us 40 years ago -- in fact we called him on our anniversary to remind him of that.(smile) He was a wonderful man and priest that I'm sure will be missed by many people.

Father Simonin was one of my favorite people. I met him as a first grader at Nativity School. He made a lifelong impression on me and he was very special to all of us. He will be missed. My most heartfelt sympathies go out to the family.
