

SOMERSET

Manville man killed in Route 206 head-on crash with tractor-trailer

Updated: Feb. 19, 2016, 3:41 p.m.|Published: Feb. 19, 2016, 2:41 p.m.

https://www.nj.com/somerset/2016/02/manville_man_killed_in_route_206_head-on_crash_wit.html

By Craig Turpin | NJ Advance Media for NJ.com

MONTGOMERY - Eugene Corbesero, 82, of Manville, was killed when the vehicle he was driving struck a tractor-trailer head-on Monday on Route 206, township police reported.

The accident happened at 5:34 p.m. when Corbesero's 2003 Toyota Camry reportedly crossed the centerline into the southbound lane, striking a 2014 Western tractor-trailer.

Corbesero was taken to Robert Wood Johnson University Hospital in New Brunswick where he was pronounced dead from his injuries. A passenger, Deshon Corbesero, 28, also of Manville, was also transported to Robert Wood Johnson New Brunswick where he was treated for his serious injuries, police said.

The driver of the tractor-trailer, Valentin Drobakha, 56, of Fairless Hills, Pa., was not injured in the crash. Officers were assisted by Montgomery Township Fire Company's #1 and #2, Rocky Hill Fire Department, Montgomery Township Emergency Medical Services Squad 47 and paramedics from Robert Wood Johnson University Hospital, police said.

The crash is being investigated by the Montgomery Township Police Department and any witnesses are asked to contact Officer Joe Zizwarek at 908-359-3222, ext. 160.