Guestbook

An incredibly generous man and amazing pianist. Will forever be missed. Words will not do justice in an attempt to describe the impact he had on me and our community.

George was a amazing person. Just tell him what song to play and he did it with no sheet music. George played Bach, Beethoven and so many others. He even played with the rock group Guns & Roses on a airplane. The piano is silent now but the applause he received from the world lives on forever.

George is my brother. He was self taught piano after not progressing as fast as he wanted to with Sister who taught at a very young age. As with everything there always was a quicker and better way of doing things. I love my brother he is now in heaven with my parents, wife and with 6 siblings who have gone before me and my sister. He can now play the piano for as long as he wants. Love you George. I was privilege to be there when he passed.
