
Refugee Priest Reaches Dayton

Rev. Vaclovas Katarskis, a refuge Lithianian priest, has arrived in Dayton from Germany and is making his home with his uncle, Rev. Leon J. Praspalius, pastor of Holy Cross church, 1922 Leo st.

Rev. Katarskis had been living in a displaced persons' camp in the U. S. zone in Germany for the last two years.

Rev. Praspalius announced Friday that with his nephew's arrival, mass will be celebrated at 6:30 and 7:30 a. m. on weekdays and at 6, 8, 10 and noon on Sundays.
