

Former Omahan To Be Ordained At Cheyenne

Omaha—A former Omahan, Gerald P. Chleborad, son of Mr. and Mrs. John G. Chleborad, will be ordained Saturday, June 4, by the Most Rev. Hubert M. Newell, Bishop of Cheyenne, at St. Mary's Cathedral, Cheyenne, Wyo.

Father Gerald Chleborad

Father Chleborad was born Nov. 3, 1934 in Omaha. He is the grandson of Mrs. Anna Chleborad and of the late Mr. and Mrs. John V. Kornmayer, all of Omaha.

He attended elementary schools in Omaha and Sioux City, Iowa. Shortly before graduation from eighth grade, the family moved to Cheyenne, where he was graduated from St. Mary's Grade School in 1948 and St. Mary's High School in 1952.

He began his studies for the priesthood the following September, entering St. Thomas' Seminary, Denver, Colo. There he completed his four years of college, majoring in philosophy.

He then began his theological studies, also at St. Thomas', completing same this spring. He has received a bachelor of sacred theology degree from Catholic University.

He will celebrate his First Solemn Mass June 5 in St. Mary's Cathedral.

A reception honoring Father Chleborad will be held Sunday evening, June 5, at Cathedral Hall, Cheyenne.
