

CHARGED IN 3 CASES OF CHILD-ENTICEMENT

Three warrants charging child enticement were issued yesterday against Carl H. Beckman III, 20-year-old former student, by Magistrate Leslie Lewis, St. Louis County. Bond was set at $5000 on each warrant, returnable Wednesday.

Beckman, who lives in the 300 block of Honeysuckle drive, Webster Groves, has admitted enticing about 15 youngsters between the ages of 5 and 12 years into his car on various occasions from Dec. 12 to Feb. 11. He was arrested Feb. 12 when an 11-year-old girl gave the license number of his car to police. He did not harm any of the children.

After examining Beckman at St. Louis County Hospital, psychiatrists said he would qualify for out-patient care but they declined to order in-patient care. Police then asked for warrants to keep the youth off the streets.
