

Montana Missioner To Work in Africa

A priest who claims Butte as his home is being sent to the foreign missions, appointments just made at Lowell, Mass., by the provincial of the first American province of the Oblate Fathers reveal. The Montana missionary is the Rev. Emmett Neville, O.M.I., who will work in Natal province, Union of South Africa. The province of Natal includes Zululand.

The Very Rev. James T. McDermott, O.M.I., provincial, announced the appointments of priests to serve in Canada and Zululand. He said the superior general of the order in Rome had confirmed the appointments of the Rev. James P. Dunleavy, O.M.I., of Lowell to the Vicariate of Hudson Bay, whose principal settlement is at Chesterfield Inlet; the Rev. William F. Lantagne, O.M.I., and the Rev. James A. Garrity, O.M.I., of Lowell to the Vicariate of the Yukon, and of Father Neville to Natal.
