
OBLATE PRIEST VISITS CASCADE

Cascade.—The Rev. Emmett E. Neville, O.M.I., who was ordained an Oblate of Mary Immaculate in Washington, D. C., June 15, visited with Mr. and Mrs. James T. Neville. Father Neville is Mr. Neville's brother. Father Neville's stay enabled the parishioners of Cascade to enjoy Mass on three consecutive Sundays. Ordinarily, Cascade is an alternate mission.

On Sept. 29, Father Neville sailed from New York for Durban, Natal, South Africa. On his journey, the young missionary is being accompanied by Father F. E. Hill, O.M.I., of Woonsocket, R. I. They expect to reach Durban about Oct. 30.

Father Neville is the son of Mrs. Beatrice Neville, formerly of Butte. He attended St. Patrick's school in Butte.
