

TAYLOR

Rev. James B. Taylor was born May 14, 1927, in Washington, D.C., to James B. Taylor and Margaret B. Taylor. He died Oct. 17, 2004, in Pascagoula. He attended school in Washington, D.C., St. Charles Borromeo Seminary in Columbus, Ohio, and Notre Dame Seminary in New Orleans, La., where he received a bachelor's degree. He was ordained at St. Peter's Church in Jackson, Miss., in 1954.

Father Taylor received a master's degree in divinity from Spring Hill College in 1954. He was assigned to many churches in the Jackson and Biloxi dioceses.

Father Taylor is survived by his sisters, Margaret T. Rovero of East Hartford, Conn., and Elizabeth T. Mangold Phillips of Folsom, Calif. He also leaves many nieces and nephews. He leaves many special friends, including the Rev. Oliver Small of Belize City, Belize; Richard Brehm of Columbus, Ohio, Cecile Toups of Pascagoula, Miss., and Ed Henne of Pascagoula, Miss.

Visitation will be from 6 to 9 p.m. Monday, Oct. 25, 2004, at O'Bryant-O'Keefe Funeral Home, Pascagoula, Miss. Rosary to be recited at 8 p.m.

Mass of Christian burial will be celebrated at 11 a.m. Tuesday, Oct. 26, 2004, at Sacred Heart Catholic Church in Pascagoula, Miss., with Bishop Thomas Rodi as celebrant of the Mass. Friends may visit one hour prior to the service at the church.

The graveside service will be private.

Donations may be made to Alzheimer's Research or to a Charity of Choice.

Arrangements made by O'Bryant-O'Keefe Funeral Home, Pascagoula, Miss.