

Three Become Citizens at Naturalization Hearing

Arnold Trachel Charlo, of Stephens Switzerland; Joseph Lester Harris, St. Ignatius, a subject of Canada and Earl Wenfred Ledgerwood of Charlo, also of Canada were admitted to citizenship during the naturalization day proceedings conducted at Polson Friday by Judge C. E. Comer and A. B. Bonsall of Spokane the examining official.

Witnesses during the proceedings for Mr. Trachsel of Charlo were George W. Wamsley of Charlo and J. L. Taulbee of Polson; for Mr. Harris were George Lindsay and George Beckwith of St. Ignatius; for Mr. Ledgerwood were Luther McCollum of St. Ignatius and O. A. Sturm of Polson.

The case of Jess Lewellan Bollman of Charlo, Canadian, was taken under advisement and the petition of George Simon Beaulieu of Pablo, Canadian upon the motion of Mr. Bonsell.

The examination of Krist Marine Barotsky of Arlee, Vernez, Turkey, was continued until next naturalization day. The case of Rufina Karges Sister Loyolo, of St. Ignatius of Imphigen, Germany, was continued pending the filing of the deposition of witnesses from Glacier County.