Pioneer Life in Montana

was recalled by a special project of the social science classes of the fifth and sixth grades of St. Paul's Indian mission. Shown here are some of the pupils who participated in making replicas of pioneer implements. On the table in the center is a small loom constructed by the boys. Two small colonial rugs were woven on this loom. The replica of a conestoga or covered wagon in which many pioneers crossed the plains is also shown.

Mother Marianne Came From Family of 7 Religious

St. Ignatius. — Mother Marianne Adams, Ursuline religious, celebrated the 50th anniversary of her religious profession Nov. 13 at St. Ignatius. High Mass was celebrated by the Rev. Gabriel Menager, S.J. The girls' choir sang the Mass of the Infant Jesus, and at the Offertory "Quid Retribuam." In the afternoon a program was given by the pupils of Villa Ursula school.

Mother Marianne comes from a devout family whose home was in Lancaster, Wisc. Seven members have served as religious in the Northwest: Two brothers were Jesuits, three sisters were Ursulines, one other sister was a Franciscan. Of these religious only Mother Marianne and Mother Emmanuel, both of the Ursuline Order, still survive. A married brother and a sister still live at Lancaster, Wisc.

Most of the 50 years of Mother Marianne's religious life have been spent on the Indian missions, especially at St. Ignatius.
