

REV. JAMES BARRY

* * *

Rev. Barry Joins Chaplains Corps

The Rev. James Barry, son of Mrs. Helen Barry, 108 Bell, and the late Richard Barry, has been appointed chaplain with a first lieutenant's commission in the Air Force. He will enter the chaplains school at Lackland Air Force Base at San Antonio, Texas, Sept. 22.

Father Barry was ordained May, 19, 1951. He received his education at St. Mary grade school, Boy's Central High School and St. Edward Seminary, Kenmore, Wash.

Since his ordination he has been assigned to St. Mary's parish here from 1951 to 1956, as assistant pastor and director of Cathedral High School at St. Helena Cathedral, in Helena, 1956-1957, and as assistant pastor of Holy Rosary parish in Bozeman and chaplain to the Newman Club at Montana State College, 1957-1958.