(The years listed above are the publication years of the Official Catholic Directory. According to the Directory, the assignments provided for a given year are effective as of January 1 of that year. This means that a priest listed in the Directory for a given year at a parish or school was likely at the same assignment for at least part of the previous year as well.)

Summary:

- Father Victor C. LaVoie was accused of sexually abusing a male minor child on at least ten occasions in approximately 1975 when the boy was approximately twelve years old. During the sexual abuse, Father LaVoie was assigned to St. John Chrysostom Church in West Roxbury, MA, and the boy belonged to the parish. The sexual abuse took place inside the sacristy of St. John Chrysostom Church.
- The sexual abuse by Father LaVoie included the following: Father LaVoie fondling the boy's penis and testicles, both over the clothes and skin on skin.
- The claim settled in 2023 in the high five figures.
