

Fr. Hagarty Leaves For Chaplain's Training School

Omaha. — Twentieth priest to leave the Omaha Diocese for service with the Armed Forces is Rev. Patrick J. Hagarty, assistant at St. Mary's here.

Father Hagarty, commissioned a

Father Hagarty

First Lieutenant, was born in Morrowville, Kansas, and ordained May 31, 1941. Assistant at Sacred Heart parish here until 1943, he was appointed to assist Rev. John Hallinan at St. Mary's from which parish he leaves to take up his army duties.

He is the son of the late Mr. P. J. Hagarty and Mrs. Margaret Hagarty who now resides at Columbus, Nebraska.