

St. Joseph's Gets Assistant Pastor

The Rev. Patrick J. Hagarty was appointed assistant pastor to Rev. Richard J. Parr of St. Joseph's church, effective May 1.

Rev. Fr. Hagarty recently returned from service in the U.S. Army, where he had been for eight years. He served in Europe in the last war with the 290th Inf. Regiment, and in Korea in the occupation forces with the 17th Inf. Regiment.

Father Parr also announced a church schedule change. Effective immediately, there will be three masses, instead of two. A new mass at 7 a.m. has been added, making the schedule 7, 8, and 10 a.m.
