

Fr. LeVay of All Souls Parish Going to Navy Chaplains School

Former Assistant Pastor at All Saints Leaves Tomorrow for Newport

Ware, Jan. 19—Rev. Raymond J. LeVay, former assistant pastor at All Saints Church and recently assigned to All Souls Parish in Springfield, leaves tomorrow for the Newport Navy Training School for Chaplains, having received a commission as a lieutenant junior grade in the Navy.

Fr. LeVay was in town yesterday bidding farewell to the many friends he made while serving at All Saints Parish. He took a special interest in the young people of the town and organized the Crusaders of All Saints, a youth society, which held entertainment and recreational activities. Twice a year Fr. LeVay took the members of the society on outings. In the summer the youngsters were taken to one of the beaches for an outing and in the winter they were taken to a dinner and entertainment.

While in Ware, he was appointed director of the Confraternity of Christian Doctrine in the Ware area. He was graduated from St. Charles College in Maryland and attended the Seminary of Philosophy and the Grand Seminary in Montreal. He was ordained as a Roman Catholic priest by Bishop Christopher J. Weldon in June at
