

Rausch takes Fargo Diocese post

Brother Cletus J. Rausch has been appointed executive assistant to Bishop James S. Sullivan of the Catholic Diocese of Fargo.

Rausch, a member of the Christian Brothers order, has been in high school administration in both private and public schools for the past 10 years. He was principal of Shanley High School in Fargo from 1977 to 1979.

RAUSCH

He received his bachelor's degree from St. John's University, Collegeville, Minn., and his master's degree in education from St. Mary's College, Winona, Minn. He earned an education specialist degree in administration from St. Thomas College, St. Paul, Minn., and has completed course work for a master's degree in counseling at the University of Wisconsin, River Falls.

Rausch, who grew up on farms near Kensal, N.D., and Dazey, N.D., was teaching at Cotter High School, Winona, before returning to Fargo.