

REV. CAMPBELL

REV. PERROTTO

REV. DUPONT

Transferred at Center

SHELBY — Two staff members at the Missionaries of the Sacred Heart Center (MSC) have been transferred to new duties and a new staff member has arrived.

Being transferred, ac-ording to the Very Rev. Charles Patrick, provincial superior of the American Missionaries of the Sacred Heart, are Father Marcel DuPont and Brother Warren Perrotto. Assigned to MSC is the Rev. James Campbell.

Father DuPont has been at MSC since its inception in 1970, serving as director of novices and junior brothers, as director of food services and staff librarian, among other duties. He is being transferred to the MSC College Seminary in Center Valley, Pa.

Brother Perrotto, who has been stationed at the Center the last five years, will continue his education in religious education at DePaul University, Chicago.

Father Campbell comes to the center after earning a Masters of Divinity degree at the Catholic Theological Union, Chicago, an MA degree in counseling psychology at Loyola University, Chicago, and in-service training at the Passionists Leadership Institute in Cincinnati.

Father Campbell will develop new programs for the clergy, religious, and laity of the state and nation while at the Center.
