

REV. ROBERT J. MOREL

Rev. Morel Ordained

The Rev. Robert J. Morel, son of Mrs. Robert W. Morel of Whitehouse Station, will be ordained today by the Most Rev. Thomas A. Boland, Archbishop of Newark, at Sacred Heart Cathedral.

A native of Hoboken, he was raised in Jersey City, where he attended St. Aloysius Grammar and High Schools. After completing studies at Seton Hall University, he attended Immaculate Conception Seminary, Darlington.

On June 8, he will return to St. Aloysius Church to celebrate his first Mass at 1 p.m. Among those concelebrating with him will be Msgr. John J. Cassels, pastor, Msgr. James A. Stone, pastor of St. Teresa's, Summit and the Rev. Gabriel S. Stone, pastor of St. Andrew the Apostle, Clifton, both uncles of the ordained. Msgr. Stone also will preach.

Ministers for the Mass include George R. Trabold, Vincent J. McMahon, Richard W. Williams, Denis J. Cohan, James C. Scott, Steven E. Sheridan, and Edward J. Chidiac, all students at the seminary.
