

FATHER FOURNIER

New Curate For St. John's

SUNCOOK — The Rev. Roger E. Fournier recently became the second curate at St. John The Baptist Catholic Church.

Father Fournier, 28, replaced the Rev. Raymond Gagnon, who was transferred to St. Mary's Church in Manchester. Father Fournier will work with the Rev. Roland Veillette, parish priest; and the Rev. Roger Croteau, the other assistant.

The new curate, originally from Nashua, was ordained in 1970 at St. Joseph's in Manchester. He served at St. Mary's Church in Manchester for two years and at St. Edmond's, also in Manchester, for eight months.

Father Fournier attended St. Anselm's College in Manchester and St. Mary Seminary and University in Baltimore, Md.