

Central alumni prepare to honor Satterthwaite

Brother Robert Satterthwaite, a native of Butte and the first Mining City man to become a member of the Christian Brothers of Ireland, will be honored Saturday night.

Brother Satterthwaite will be paid tribute at the eighth annual banquet of the Butte Central High Alumni Association in the Finlen Hotel. A no-host cocktail party starts at 6. Dinner will be at 7. Tickets are on sale at the hotel.

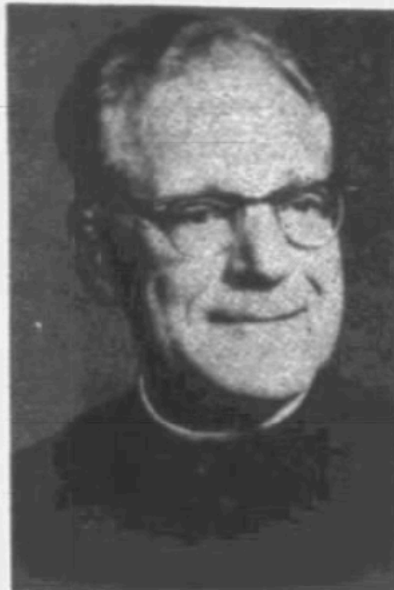

Brother Satterthwaite, now teaching at the Brothers' Cantwell High School in Montebello, Calif., is celebrating his 50th year as a member of the Christian Brothers. He entered the order following graduation from old Central High School in 1925.

He taught at Boys Central from 1938 to 1944. He was highly successful as head football and basketball coach from 1942-44.

Brother P. D. McCormack, a former student of the jubilarian, and alumni association moderator, said Brother Satterthwaite will arrive in Butte by plane Thursday at 12:30 p.m. A welcoming party of alumni and friends is planned at the airport. Mayor Mike Micone, and-or, Dan Rosa, city council president, will attend.

The Saturday banquet will

BROTHER
SATTERTHWAITE

Student honored

Ray DuBois Jr., Butte, a student at Seattle Central Community College, has been selected for the 1975 Who's Who Among Students in American Junior Colleges.

DuBois is a graduate of Butte Central and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray DuBois, 720 Nevada.

honor graduates of the classes of 1925, 1935 and 1950. William O'Connor, Kennedy School principal, will be toastmaster. James Murphy, John Mack and Jack McLeod will respond to the class toasts. The Rev. J. P. Sullivan will give the invocation, and the Rev. J. J. McCoy, principal of Central, will give benediction.