

St. Rose gains new assistant for weekends

The Rev. George Trabold will serve as weekend assistant at St. Rose of Lima Church for the coming year. He is in residence at the local rectory.

During the week, Father Trabold is a marriage tribunal judge for the Metuchen Diocese, a position he has held for the past year. He previously served the Newark Archdiocese in the same capacity for five years.

Born in Newark, Father Trabold was reared in Orange and graduated from Seton Hall University and Immaculate Conception Seminary at Darlington, Mahwah. Following his ordination in 1973 at Sacred Heart Cathedral, Newark, he served as associate pastor of St. John's Church, Bergenfield, for five years.

In 1980 Father Trabold received a degree in canon law from Catholic University, Washington, D.C. He then began his work in the church marriage office.
