November 11, 1942 – May 14, 2026

Colonel Vincent James Inghilterra, a distinguished veteran and dedicated chaplain, passed away peacefully at his home in Pennsylvania. He was 83 years old. Born in Paterson, New Jersey, on November 11, 1942, Vincent was the son of the late Paul Inghilterra and Josephine Inghilterra (née Ferraro). A man of deep faith and high intellect, he earned a PhD in theology from Princeton University where he was also a professor. Colonel Inghilterra served with honor in the United States Army for 40 years. His highly decorated career included serving during Operation Desert Storm, the Gulf War, the Somalia War, and the War in Afghanistan.

Beyond his military achievements, Vincent was a cherished brother, uncle, and great-uncle. He is survived by his beloved sister, Josephine Portali, and her husband Vincent. He was the cherished uncle of his niece, Paulette Caccavale, and her husband Massimo, and the proud great-uncle of their sons, Anthony and his wife Rachel and Nicholas.

Family and friends are invited to gather for a visitation on Tuesday, May 19, 2026, from 4:00 PM to 8:00 PM at Santangelo Funeral Home, located at 635 McBride Ave, Woodland Park, New Jersey. A funeral service will be held at Santangelo Funeral Home on Wednesday, May 20, 2026, at 10:00 AM, with relatives and friends welcome to arrive beginning at 9:00 AM. Burial will follow at Holy Sepulchre Cemetery in Totowa, New Jersey.

Your life was a blessing, and your memory is a treasure. Rest in peace family.

RoseMarie Buscema

A wonderful cousin. A fond memory I visited him along with his family. He took us to visit different areas such as the Washington monument. I treasure that time we had to spend with him.

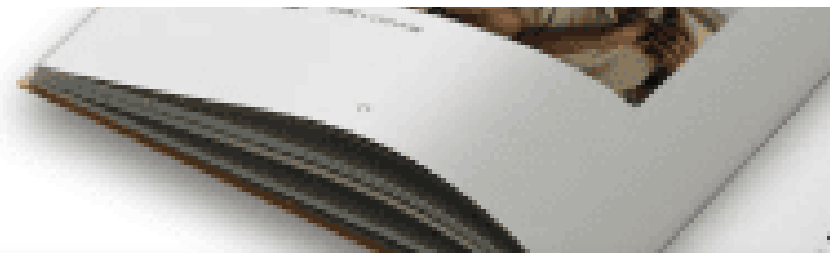

May he rest in peace. 🙏🕊️
