

YOUNG PRIEST WILL CELEBRATE MASS

Rev. Joseph Donald Keffer, Newly Ordained, Will Officiate At Service In Mc-Sherrystown Sunday

The Rev. Joseph Donald Keffer, of the Order of St. Augustine, will celebrate his first solemn high mass in the Church of the Annunciation of the Blessed Virgin Mary, McSherrystown, on Sunday morning at 10:30 o'clock.

The Rev. Father Keffer was ordained to the priesthood by the Most Rev. John M. McNamara on Tuesday of this week at the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception, Washington, D. C.

The young priest is a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Keffer, Center square, McSherrystown. He was graduated from Central Catholic High school, now Delone Catholic High school, McSherrystown, in 1938. The Rev. Father Keffer attended Villa Nova college before entering the Augustinian Order.

Among the officers at the Rev. Father Keffer's first mass on Sunday will be the Rev. Roy Keffer, a cousin of the newly-ordained priest and rector of St. Theresa's church, New Cumberland, who will serve as deacon.

The Rev. Robert Lawrence, formerly of McSherrystown, and now of St. Thomas High school, Rockford, Ill., will deliver the sermon. The Rev. George Krupa, of the Malvern Preparatory school, will serve as sub-deacon. The Rt. Rev. Msgr. Patrick F. McGee, rector of the Church of the Annunciation, will be assistant priest.

The Rev. Father Keffer plans to attend summer school at the Catholic University, Washington, D. C., during the next few months.

Ordained As Priest

The Rev. Joseph Donald Keffer, above, who was ordained to the priesthood last Tuesday, will celebrate his first solemn high mass in the Church of the Annunciation of the Blessed Virgin Mary in McSherrystown on Sunday morning at 10:30 o'clock.
