

St. Joseph's Rosary Group Plans Event

Rev. Edward F. English, former assistant pastor at St. Paul the Apostle's Church, will be the principal speaker at the St. Joseph's Church Rosary Society Communion breakfast Sunday, May 6, at The Hendrick Hudson.

Father English at present is chaplain at St. Peter's Hospital, Albany.

Members of the Rosary Society will receive Holy Communion at the 8 a.m. Mass in St. Joseph's Church. Breakfast will follow.

Father English, a native of Albany, was graduated from the Christian Brothers Academy and was ordained in 1943 after taking his theological studies at St. Joseph's Seminary, Dunwoodie. His first assignment was as curate at the Immaculate Conception in Schenectady. While he served as assistant at St. Paul's, he was chaplain at the Samaritan Hospital.

Miss Dorothy Dwyer and Mrs. Catherine Oathout are cochairmen for the event.

Miss Loretta Farley will serve as toastmaster.

Other committee chairmen and cochairmen include: Hotel, Miss Ann Myers and Mrs. John Breen; entertainment, Miss Julia L. Walsh; prayer cards, Josephine Kennedy and Miss Ann O'Brien; finance, Mrs. Earl Luby and Mrs. William Manning; printing, Mrs. Loretta Nicoll and Mrs. Fred McLaughlin; publicity, Mrs. John McGarry and Mrs. John Hayes.

Also, hospitality, Miss Rose McKeon and Mrs. Gladys Page; transportation, Mrs. Mae Akin and Miss Rosalie Morey; reservations, Mrs. John Teitsch and Mary Carey; decorations, Mrs. Mary Vandeburgh and Mrs. Leo Quandt; placements, Mrs. Henry LaFleur and Mrs. John Kelly; and tickets, Miss Ann Maloney and Miss Agnes McGuinness.

REV. EDWARD F. ENGLISH