

Elks Eulogy Service Sunday at Oneonta

Press Bureau

Oneonta Departed brothers will be eulogized during the annual Elks memorial services at 4 p. m. Sunday at the Elks Club in Oneonta.

Speaker will be the Rev. Liam C. Casey, a native of Ireland and an assistant pastor of St. Mary's Roman Catholic Church.

CHARLES GALLAGHER, secretary, said yesterday 24 members of Lodge 1312 died during the last year.

The previous high for a single year was 22.

Names of the 24 Elks will be projected from individual, illuminated white crosses arrayed over an altar in the Lodge Room during the services.

Eulogized will be:

George Slattery, Stamford; John J. Duffy, Binghamton; Martin H. Peters, Schenevus; Michael Bellas, Stamford; Harold E. Kloster, Oneonta; Anthony Kania, Oneonta.

Also, Alton C. Woodard, Plattsburgh; Raymond J. Hayes, Oneonta; Carl J. Hamilton, Delhi; Fred C. Sanly, Oneonta; Fred C. Sanly, Unadilla; John Lambrecht, Cooperstown; Charles Burdick, Cooperstown.

ALSO, LYNN H. BRESEE, Oneonta; Vyrle Young, Oneonta; Joseph Pizza, Sr., East Meredith; William S. Finigan, Harold D. Post and Wirt L. Lewis, all of Oneonta.

Also, Adolphus W. Sloan, Morris; Lee L. Firman, Oneonta; William H. Lunn, Sr., Oneonta; Joseph K. Irons, Oneonta; Ferdinand Golfetto, Jefferson, and James R. Macduff, Schenevus.

Father Casey was ordained

into the priesthood at St. Patrick's College at Carlow, Ireland.

He has been in the Albany

Diocese for the last five years, and was assigned to St. Mary's here in June of 1966.

MUSIC FOR THE SERVICES will be by the Elks Glee Club, directed by Laurence L. Schomo, and a girls' choral group from Charlotte Valley Central School in Davenport.

The Elks Club has about 1,000 members, most of whom live in the Otsego and Delaware County area around Oneonta.

Officials who also will have roles in the memorial are, Dr. Peter Gregory, exalted ruler; Dr. Robert Pondolino, leading knight; Gerald Terpenning, loyal knight; Donald Ten Eyck, lecturing knight; John Brown, esquire; Joseph Pondolino, Jr., inner guard; Kevin Bligh, tiler; George Walter, chaplain; Edward Goodrich, treasurer, and Mr. Gallagher.

The Elks memorial services are open to the public.
